

STRIKERS ARE HOT AT BEING BEATEN

TROUBLE NARROWLY AVERTED AT ISHPERING, MICH.

Assault by a Mine Manager Exasperates the Crowd—Milwaukee Iron and Steel Workers Have a Grievance—General Labor News From All Centers.

Ishpeming, Mich., Sept. 4.—The first real excitement that has taken place since the arrival of the troops here occurred at Negaunee last night. James Finley, a delivery man employed by Thomas W. Willis, a local merchant, went to the soldiers' camp at the Buffalo mine with some supplies. After delivering his goods he did not hurry away, and was requested by Manager Cole, of the mining company, to immediately leave the premises. The young man replied that he was in no hurry, and would leave when he saw fit. The mine manager became angry and struck Finley a severe blow in the face, at the same time threatening to kick him off the grounds if he did not leave.

When Finley returned to town he told his father what had happened, and the old gentleman had a warrant sworn out for Cole's arrest. The warrant was placed in the hands of Marshal Rough, who hesitated, however, about serving it. Many of the strikers learned of the affair, and congregated about the streets in large numbers, talking it over. At 7:30 p. m. the marshal concluded to serve the warrant, and went to Cole's home, with the request that the latter accompany him to the city jail. The crowd followed and became very excited, but were finally persuaded to disperse. Colonel Lyon, of the Fifth regiment, was notified of the disturbance, and had three companies in readiness to move to Negaunee by special train in case of violence. The grand stand, stables and a large proportion of the fence at the Union park, where the strikers hold their daily meeting, was destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday. The loss to the association is about $1,500. No insurance was carried. The park property was destroyed in a similar way about fourteen months ago.

OBJECT TO A NEW SYSTEM.

Iron and Steel Workers Have a Grievance at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 4.—There may be trouble before long among the 4,500 employees at the Bay View plant of the Illinois Steel Company over a new system to be inaugurated by Superintendent Reis. Under the new arrangement every man will be required to wear a brass badge with a number on it during working hours, for better identification. In addition to this, at every one of the five or six entrances to the grounds are to be placed large clocks or registers. To these clocks each workman has a special key, and upon entering or leaving the grounds is to turn the lock corresponding to his number, which is then registered within the clock, together with the time of entrance or departure, as indicated by his manipulation of the clock.

The local lodges of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers have considered the proposed innovation and have unanimously decided to refuse to use the clock system so far as it applies to the puddlers and heaters and other workmen paid by the ton, the classes which to a large extent comprise the membership of the Amalgamated association. About 600 of the employees are members of the Amalgamated association.

KEEP OUT NEW MEN.

Cleveland Wire Nail Workers Bar Entrance to the Mills.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4.—When the Baackes Wire Nail Works passed into the possession of the Consolidated Wire and Steel Company and it was shut down for repairs the 400 employees determined that they would not return to work unless they were paid the prices won by the other wire mill men of Cleveland in their recent strike. Yesterday the company tried to get forty men imported from Pennsylvania into the mill, but the strikers were alert and turned out to the number of over 200. A large squad of police was sent to the mills and the company placed a score of private detectives on guard. The imported workmen finally scattered, many of them declaring that they would return home. Serious trouble is apprehended, as the company is determined to start the mill at its own wages.

Illinois Coal Miners Uneasy.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—The reports of State mine inspectors now being made to the state bureau of labor show that the wages earned by miners for the year 1894-95 are not as large as in 1892-93, and much less than in 1893-94, before their wages were cut by operators. An important cause of this is the loss of trade resulting from the strikes of 1894. Introduction of machines has also reduced the receipts of the miners. A state officer of the miners says that unless the miners' wages are restored to last year's figures there will be a big strike on October 1, the reduction having been from 10 to 20 cents per ton. Miners are organizing everywhere to demand this restoration.

Sailors' Wages Advanced.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4.—A general advance in wages on boats belonging to the Lake-Carriers' Association has followed quickly upon the improved condition of lake traffic. The finance committee of the lake-carriers yesterday increased the wages of firemen, wheelmen, lookouts, deck hands and oilers on steamers and all hands employed on sail vessels $5 a month. The new schedule of wages goes into effect Sept. 5.

MURDERER HOLMES' CLEVER IDEA. Will Raise a Defense Fund By Elaborate and Original Blackmail Schemes.

New York, Sept. 4.—A special from Philadelphia says that H. H. Holmes, who is charged with wholesale insurance swindles and with several murders, and is now awaiting trial for the killing of B. F. Pitzel, has engineered what is obviously a cunning scheme. During his travels throughout the country he has had business and social relations with many persons of undoubted respectability. The major portion of these friendships were undoubtedly free from any suspicion of wrong-doing, but they are to be made the vehicle for securing sufficient funds for his defense. Those who knew Holmes will be informed that they are to be part and parcel of the book. Intimations will be given that it would be more than unpleasant to be known in connection with its author; all mention of certain names will be omitted—for a money consideration.

AFRAID OF CHOLERA.

Pacific Coast Cities in a State of Uneasiness.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 4.—The prevalence of cholera in Honolulu and in the orient has created a scare here. The local board of health is already adopting stringent measures to repel its invasion. City Physician Wheeler says that at no time have the Pacific coast cities been so seriously menaced by the scourge as now. Winter is no protection against the disease, as the germs flourish in all temperatures. He says the situation is alarming; people must not be deceived, and health ordinances must be rigorously enforced. All vessels coming here from foreign ports will be carefully examined and quarantined if necessary.

Manitoba's New Governor Sworn In.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 4.—Sir John Schultz, who for seven years has been governor of Manitoba, has received an official dispatch that the Hon. J. C. Patterson, until recently minister of militia in the Dominion cabinet, has been sworn in as his successor and that he will proceed to Winnipeg at once. This appointment is made by the Dominion authorities in the face of the most determined opposition of the people of Manitoba, who insist on the appointment of a local man. Premier Greenway has announced that his government will cut off all provincial moneys that have heretofore been appropriated for the maintenance of government house when the new governor enters. The Hon. Mr. Patterson will, therefore, have to worry along on the Dominion allowance of $10,000 a year, which goes with the office.

Tried to Assault a Murderer.

Jasper, Fla., Sept. 4.—Joseph B. Norton, white, was hanged here yesterday for the murder of James Denmark, also white. It was intended to have the execution private, but the crowd broke down the inclosure about the scaffold. Norton ascended the gallows at 11:15 a. m., and in his statement said he did not kill Denmark, but that his life had been sworn away. He pointed out Messrs. Miles and McAlpin as two men who had sworn falsely.

This caused a riot. McAlpin tried to ascend the gallows to assault Norton, but after a struggle was arrested. Norton is the first white man legally hanged in Florida in thirty years.

To Investigate Alleged Boodling.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—The published charges of corruption and boodling in the legislature will be investigated by the Sangamon county grand jury. The grand jury for the September term of the Circuit court began its work here yesterday. Attorney James M. Graham called attention to the charges and said they were specific and could not be properly ignored. The editors of the papers which have been publishing these wholesale charges will be cited to appear before the grand jury and tell what they know.

To Wed Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 4.—The engagement of Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt and Mr. Moses Taylor, though not formally announced, is known by their friends. The great fortune of Miss Vanderbilt is almost matched by the millions of Mr. Taylor. He is the second son of Henry A. C. Taylor and his inheritance came from his grandfather, Moses Taylor, one of the most successful and respected of the old-time merchants. Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and one of the world's richest heiresses.

Deep Water Convention Delegates.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 4.—At the request of Governor Morrill of Kansas, and Tom Richardson, Secretary of the Western States Conference, Governor Stone has appointed about sixty delegates to represent the State of Missouri at the Deep Water convention to be held in Topeka, Kas., on October 1, 1895. This number includes all the representatives of Missouri in Congress.

MEETING IS A FARCE FOX RIVER MEN SAY

GREEN BAY CONVENTION HAS NO SIGNIFICANCE.

Manufacturers and Mill Owners Say It Is a Scheme to Advertise the City—Rock River Clogged With Wild Rice at Palmyra—Old Navigator Dead.

Appleton, Sept. 4.—Mill men and Fox river valley manufacturers look upon the water conference at Green Bay yesterday as a big farce and gotten up to boom Green Bay. They claim that nothing can come of it, as the government has no power to interfere with navigation.

Old Navigator Is Dead.

Palmyra, Sept. 4.—Captain Wilson, an old Palmyra settler who distinguished himself by sailing eight times around the world, died this morning in his eighty-seventh year.

Rock River Full of Rice.

Palmyra, September 4.—Rock river in this country was never before so clogged up with the growth of wild rice as at present. The rice is being removed by a force of men in various places, because of its detriment to water power of mills along the river's bank.

Farmer Twice Burned Out.

Brillion, Sept. 4.—George Brichtel, a farmer near here lost all his barns, machinery and grain by fire caused by a steam thresher. The loss is five thousand dollars; insurance one-half. He lost his barns and house last year in the same way.

Police Squabble Settled.

Marquette, Sept. 4.—The council appointed Samuel P. Sellvold chief of police in place of John McLaughlin, who resigned. The whole affair has created a stir in political circles here.

Ohio County Treasurer Short.

Toledo, O., Sept. 4.—The bondsmen of Michael Finan, the outgoing treasurer of Paulding county, are wearing troubled faces. The auditor's books show that Finan, as county treasurer, should have in his possession of the county's money, or its equivalent, the sum of $74,622.24, yet he offers in settlement but $46,500, showing a shortage of $32,122.24. The report of Examiner Charles Votried showed something over $14,000 of this shortage, and the balance of the total shortage of $32,122.24 has been piled up since Jan. 21, 1895, at which time Votried, acting under the direction of State Auditor Poe, counted the money.

For Chattanooga Dedication.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 4.—Companies A, C, D and G of the 17th infantry, United States troops, arrived yesterday over the Cincinnati Southern from the barracks at Columbus, O., accompanied by a splendid band. All the railroads in Tennessee have offered to transport the state militia to the park free, and with the number of Tennessee troops on the ground, added to Uncle Sam's regulars and the forty or fifty private companies expected the feature of the dedication will undoubtedly be the military display.

Missouri Bank Reopens.

Mexico, Mo., Sept. 4.—The Farmers' bank at Ladonia, Mo., is again open and ready for business. The attorney-general, bank examiner and receiver and attorneys met in Mexico and the matter was settled. The directors of the bank have fully complied with the law.

OH! BUT IT RAINED AND RIVERS ROSE

INDIANAPOLIS WET DOWN BY A LITERAL DELUGE.

Telephone Exchange Destroyed By Lightning—Missouri River Jumps Six Feet in Two Hours—Twelve-Inch Fall Stones Scattered Around New London, Missouri.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4.—Six and seven-tenths inches of rain fell last night. Much damage was done. The telephone exchange was destroyed by lightning.

Louisiana, Mo., Sept. 4.—The Missouri river rose six feet in two hours last night.

New London, Mo., Sept. 4.—Hailstones fell last night weighing eight ounces, and twelve inches in circumference.

Pittsfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—A furious storm swept over the northeastern portion of Pike county yesterday afternoon. The little village of Kinderhook, on the Wabash railroad, about twenty miles from here, was badly damaged. First reports were that many houses had been destroyed, and five persons killed. These reports were greatly exaggerated, but as the wires are down it is impossible to learn the exact extent of the damage done by the storm. It is not believed that any one was killed. At other points in the county barns were blown down and trees uprooted.

HAD NARROW ESCAPES.

Boston Family Rescued from a Burning House Just in Time.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 4.—The two and a half story frame building in East Boston of T. A. Mead, submaster at Chapman public school, was the scene of a serious fire last night and several of the occupants were severely burned. Mr. Mead himself perhaps fatally.

The family had retired for the night. Mr. Mead was aroused from his slumbers by the smell of smoke and found a brisk blaze in progress. He at once rushed to the assistance of his aged mother and succeeded, with the assistance of his brother, H. M. Mead of Indianapolis, Ind., in rescuing her from an awful death. In doing so, however, Mr. Mead was terribly burned about the face, head, arms, and body, and his life is despaired of. Mrs. Mead and H. M. Mead, and the latter's wife, were severely burned about the face and hands. They would have been lost but for the timely arrival of the firemen, who found them unconscious in the lower hall.

ENGINEERS MEET.

Convention Called to Order at St. Paul Minn.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—Nearly three hundred delegates from all the leading cities of the country were gathered in the hall of the house of representatives of the state house yesterday when President M. D. Nagle, of New York, called to order the fourteenth annual convention of the National Association of Stationary Engineers. These delegates represented no less than 250 separate organizations, each having a membership of fifty or upward and composed exclusively of engineers in charge of steam plants, and upon whose ability and fidelity and faithfulness depend daily the lives of millions of people and the safety of property valued at billions. In connection with the convention there is a large exhibition of devices in the engineering line. The delegates were welcomed by Governor Clough, and appropriate responses were made.

SEA BEACH VICTIM DEAD.

One Fatality Results from the New York Railroad Wreck.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 4.—William H. Pointer, of 67 Thomas street, Newark, N. J., who was injured in the Sea Beach railway wreck at Woodlawn station Monday afternoon, died at Seney hospital. Pointer's injuries were at first supposed to be only slight, but it developed that he was hurt internally. A tour of the other hospitals where the injured were taken showed that the patients were all doing well this morning and that no more deaths were likely to follow.

More Spring Valley Indictments.

Princeton, Ill., Sept. 4.—Thomas O'Day and Joe Schneider of Spring Valley were indicted by the grand jury yesterday on a charge of being connected with the late riots, increasing the total number on this charge to sixteen. The indictment against Mayor Delmargo, together with the indictments against the thirty-eight saloonkeepers of Spring Valley and Seatonville, were, on motion of State's Attorney Johnson, certified from the circuit to the county court. The hearings will now come before Judge Trimble unless a change of venue is secured.

Strike Reaching a Crisis.

Two Rivers, Wis., Sept. 4.—Leopold Mann of the Two Rivers Manufacturing Company announced yesterday that new men would be employed in the factories to take the place of the strikers and that the strikers would be ignored. The old employees assert that they will resist any such action, and they continue along the same lines as heretofore, with hopes of winning the battle. Thus far the committee appointed by the strikers to negotiate a settlement have accomplished nothing.

EXPLORER STANLEY IS COMING.

Liverpool, September 4.—Henry M. Stanley sailed for America today on the Majestic.

CUBAN INSURGENTS GO DOWN.

New Troops Landed to Assist Campos—Republic Formally Proclaimed.

Havana, Sept. 4.—Insurgent Chief Bali, with a numerous force in combination with other bands, whose chiefs are unknown, made an impetuous attack on the vanguard and on both flanks of the column of General Linares at Remanguanaguas, province of Santiago de Cuba, with intent to seize their convoy. Lieutenant Colonel Tejeda, of the guerrillas, repulsed the insurgents until he was re-enforced by two companies of the battalion of Antequera and one of the union battalion. Commander Linares routed and dispersed the insurgents, who made no further hostile demonstrations. The column arrived with their convoy at Venta Casanova and returned to Palma Soriano. The insurgents left seven killed when they retired, with a greater number of wounded. The troops lost two officers and five soldiers dead and twenty-nine wounded according to the official report made of the engagement. A detachment of volunteers under Major Maya met the Plateados band near Gamañal and killed the insurgent chief, Manuel Fernandez.

The steamer Antonio Lopez has arrived here from Spain, bringing the Eleventh Battalion of Artillery, the Arlaban field squadron and the Del Rey squadron, the re-enforcements aggregating fifty-seven officers and 1,300 men. Marshal De Campos reviewed the troops upon their debarkation.

PROCLAIM A REPUBLIC.

New Government Formally Instituted in Cuba.

London, Sept. 4.—A Havana dispatch to the Times says that a meeting of insurgent delegates at Najasa proclaimed a constitution for the republic on a federal basis of five states. They also elected the Marquis of Santa Lucia President and appointed various officers, as well as confirming the nominations of Antonio Maceo to be general commanding in Santiago de Cuba, Maximo Gomez in Puerto Principe, and Roloff in Santa Clara. Najasa was proclaimed as the provisional federal capital. A proposal to proclaim Maceo Dictator of Cuba was discussed for six days, and was finally withdrawn. The Autonomist party intend to petition Spain for self-government on Canadian lines. It is stated that Gomez is inclined to accept conditional autonomy, but Maceo declines any compromise.

Spanish Squadron to Sail.

Madrid, Sept. 4.—The Correspondencia says a Spanish squadron is going to the Antilles, the principal object of the expedition being to urge the claims of Spain against the United States in the Alliance affair.

SEIZE FISHING VESSELS.

Newfoundland Ships in Canadian Waters Are Confiscated.

St. John's, N. F., Sept. 4.—A Virginia lake mail steamer, from Labrador, reports that one Canadian fleet of fishing cruisers, heavily armed with gatling guns, cannon, and other weapons, is seizing all the Newfoundland vessels found in Canadian waters, and has conveyed them to a headquarters in the Straits of Belle Isle. A portion of Labrador belongs to Canada and appertains to the Newfoundland fishermen, and each country usually fishes in the territory of the other without interference. The present proceedings are doubtless due to some hot-headed official. There is much excitement here, and the government held a summary meeting to consider the situation last night.

Cholera Raging in China.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 4.—The steamship Empress of China has arrived from the Orient with advices to Aug. 23, as follows: Cholera increases in Peking, and the deaths exceed 1,500 daily. It is also increasing in Japan. The total number of cholera cases reported throughout Japan Aug. 19 was 771; deaths, 429. The aggregate number of cases from Aug. 1 is 25,000, of which 1,230 occurred on transports. The deaths are 16,278. There were eighteen new cases in Tokio in the twenty-four ending at noon Aug. 21, of which two died.

For Poisoning Her Mother.

New York, Sept. 4.—The funeral of Mrs. Evalina Bliss, a wealthy woman, who died last Friday, was held yesterday, and immediately afterward the daughter of the dead woman, Mrs. Alice Fleming, was arrested at the Colonial hotel on a charge that she murdered her mother by poison. The case is a mysterious, sensational one, as the death of Mrs. Bliss gives to her daughter an income from an estate of $300,000, left by Robert Swift Livingstone, who was the first husband of Mrs. Bliss.

Trial of Theodore Durrant Begun.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 4.—The actual trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont commenced yesterday morning. District Attorney Barnes delivered the opening address.

To Meet at Cleveland in June.

Nantasket Beach, Mass., Sept. 4.—At yesterday's session of the Mystic Shrine it was decided to hold the next meeting in Cleveland, O., on the third Tuesday in June, 1896.

PIERS AND CARS GO IN A BOSTON BLAZE

FIRE THIS MORNING COSTS OVER $150,000.

Two Large Freight Store Houses, Fifteen Loaded Cars, Three Wharfs and Much Other Property Destroyed—Flour Mills at Evansville, Ind., Burning—Other Losses.

Boston, Sept. 4.—Fire this morning destroyed three piers, two large storehouses, a freight shed and fifteen loaded freight cars, besides damaging a number of dwellings. The loss is over a hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Old Catholic School Burns.

Parsons, Kan., Sept. 4.—St. Ann's academy, at St. Paul, fourteen miles northeast of this city, was burned at noon yesterday. Help was sent from this city, and the flames were confined to one building. The academy was one of the oldest Catholic schools in Kansas. The loss foots up into the thousands, with partial insurance.

Fire at Evansville, Ind.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 4.—The Heilmann roller flour mills, an elevator, and 100,000 bushels of wheat, and several cottages in the neighborhood burned last night. The loss on the mill is $50,000 and $50,000 on elevator and wheat, and probably $10,000 on the other property.

FRAKER IN JAIL.

Much Doubt Whether Insurance Companies Can Recover Their Money.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 4.—Dr. George W. Fraker arrived here in charge of officers last night, and was immediately jailed. A curious throng met the party at the depot. He expressed himself as being thoroughly glad to be near his old home again, but said he was anxious to seek the solace of a cell beyond the stare of the curious. Charges will be preferred against him to-day.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 4.—An official of one of the victimized companies said yesterday: "It is very unlikely Fraker can be held on any charge. He disappeared but he never put in a claim for any life insurance. The insurance has been paid, but there is not any proof that he received a cent or tried to get a cent. The money was paid without any actual proof of death."

Liberty, Mo., Sept. 4.—The news of the finding of Dr. Fraker at Tower, Minn., created considerable excitement here. Attorneys for the insurance companies served notice on the Commercial Bank, Probate Judge Fowler, and the clerk of Judge Lincoln, executor of Fraker's will, that they would apply to United States Judge Foster for an injunction restraining them from paying out any money.

FOR A NATIONAL BODY.

Powerful Union of United States Financiers in Prospect.

New York, Sept. 4.—The American Bankers' association is to be succeeded by a vigorous institution which proposes to invite to its membership the active financiers of the United States. The new organization had its birth at a secret meeting of the council of administration of the New York State Bankers' association, held at the Windsor hotel Monday afternoon. At that meeting resolutions were adopted that a committee of five members of the association, of whom the president shall be one, be appointed to secure an expression of opinion from the various state organizations throughout the country as to the advisability of establishing a national organization, the membership of which shall be composed of delegates from State Bankers' associations. It is said that favorable answers from all the thirty state associations, which number in their membership nearly 5,000 substantial bankers, will be received by the committee, who will report to the executive committee at its November meeting.

Flags Over Illinois Public Schools.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The flag law passed by the last legislature was tested yesterday by the opening of the Chicago public and parochial schools. The result of the test was as follows: The 217 public schools under the direction of the city Board of Education displayed the flag, some on the building and some on flagstaffs in the grounds. Most of the country schools under the direction of the county Board of Education displayed the flag. Those lacking flags will be furnished with them as soon as possible. The Lutheran parochial schools did not display the flag. The Roman Catholic schools did not display the flag. Special reports from the principal cities and towns in Illinois show that the flag law was generally observed.

Hope for English Interference.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 4.—The Hawaiian exiles have not yet given up hope of return to their country or of financial balm to their wounds. Colonel V. V. Ashford, when interviewed, admitted that he was in correspondence with several of the leading men of England, but could not state the nature of the correspondence. He expressed the belief, however, that the British government, though slow, will finally request President Dole and his government to make full reparation for the wrongs British subjects have recently suffered.

WINSOME TRILBY CHARMED A THROG

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYED
LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.

How the Dramatist Has Veered From the Lines Laid Down in the Book—Taffy, the Laird, Gecko, Dodor and Zou-Zou All Easily Recognized By the Audience.

If "Trilby" had never been written but Mr. Du Maurier had given to Mr. Potter a plot to work out, criticism would have been disarmed. But the charm of that story? Who can forget it?

How is any play-wright to show the growth of the Three Musketeers from fiction into reality, from creatures of the imagination to loved and cherished friends? How is any play-wright to catch and hold the gay, delightful, some, gentle, pathetic picture of a woman to whom, because of her much loving, much by the divine command must be forgiven?

Most Janesville play-goers knew, before the curtain rose, the lines the play was to take. Still the development was watched with quite as much interest as the interpretation.

The Trilby of Du Maurier, which concludes with the brief, melancholy and obscure narrative of the subjection of a soul by hypnotic suggestion to the will of an evil tyrant is turned by Mr. Potter into a drama or melodrama of hypnotism almost altogether. The single hint in the novel, during all the life of the characters in the studio, of Svengali's mesmeric power over Trilby is enlarged into a boding ominous threat. Put into actual words and frequently repeated, and the relations of Little Billie and the heroine are finally made to be determined by Svengali's exercise of that power.

Melodrama of Hypnotism.

Once this scheme—this destruction of the novelist's scheme—is accepted, the auditor is well satisfied with Mr. Potter's work. He has built excellently upon this foundation. His Trilby is a very interesting and effective melodrama in which clever use is made—with necessary theatricality—of the phenomena of hypnotic suggestion. It must also be said that the spirit of most of the characters of the romance is caught and portrayed most faithfully. The Laird and Taffy and Gecko and Trilby herself and Zou-Zou are the figures and souls that all have learned to know and love. Svengali is made much more clean, magnificent, megalomaniac and demonic than he is in the original though just as base. The keen, touching, vibrating passion of Little Billie is not, cannot be, of course, shown at its moments of highest stress and his horror over the spectacle of Trilby sitting as a model "for the altogether" is condensed into a few words and a little "business" within the studio. And the anguish of her awakened shame and repentance when her lover's horror touches her spirit is indicated in a very few words.

Acting Was Very Satisfactory.

A company of admirable players presented the piece last night. Herbert Carr, of the original Chicago company, impersonated the herculean Taffy, and gave the studio scene with Mr. and Mrs. Bagot, very effectively. Mabel Ambler won warm praise in the trying part of Trilby. Her work, marred in the opening act by a hint of the sourette, was much stronger and more consistent in the later scenes. As acted, Trilby is shown to be weaker in love for Little Billie than was the original. She does not make a willing sacrifice for her lover's sake. She is taken away from him by the hypnotic art of Svengali. In other respects, the stage character does not differ materially from that of the book, although it is not possible to present all the varying shades of Trilby's charming nature so graphically described by Du Maurier.

Theodore Roberts, appearing as Svengali for the second time only, was intense yet well controlled in his impersonation of the weird, horrible Bohemian musician. W. J. Romain as Gecko was the same pitiable specimen of a musical enthusiast that the book portrays. Jolly Zou Zou, reckless Dodor and the half dozen other minor characters which have become so well known and admired by the public were all graphically represented.

The audience was the finest that has gathered in the opera house for many months, and Manager Stoddard received many compliments on the success of his opening.

LADIES AID SOCIETY DID A SKIRT DANCE

EVANSVILLE FOLKS WILD OVER THEIR VICTORY.

Band Blew All the Reeds Out of Their Instruments and Then Pounded the Horns Against the Side of the Grand Stand Through Sheer Ecstasy.

Did you see that Evansville crowd when the ball game ended?

The village board stood up and in lusty chorus asked: "Is anything the matter with Broughton?"

And Mayor Wilder and C. E. Lee responded with ear-splitting fervor: "Well, we should rather say not!"

Six sedate married women, mothers of families and leaders in the Evansville Ladies Aid society, jumped down in the front of the grand stand when the Hussars struck up a quick-step, and the skirt dance those staid matrons indulged in made the crowd howl. For five minutes it lasted, and enough vim was put into it to make Evansville quiver for days.

It wasn't an Evansville team that won the victory but Evansville folks claimed to have won about $1500 on it and were happy accordingly. Stewart, Anson's second baseman and four other Chicago players—Maurice Crall, Possell, Nichols and Minton—played with the team. Edgerton also had a lot of outside talent as the summary shows.

A Sensation.

The great boys' and children's department of Rosenfeld, the clothing man, has been the talk of mothers and other people buying boys' and children's clothing. This is no newspaper talk or a business man's lie, but we have sold more boys' and children's clothing so far, for this fall season than any previous season since our residence here. With such terrific warm weather in sight what can be the reason? There is only one answer: Prices. Just think of it. A suit for a boy from fourteen to eighteen years, the large sizes fitting a man—coat, pants and vest made of good cloth, half wool and half cotton well made for the small sum of $2.50 for the little ones from 4 to 13 years we sell two piece suits never before heard of. A suit good for every day use for the tiny sum of 75 cents and $1 and an all wool suit from $1.50 to $2. Call and see the promoter of low prices on good goods. DISLODGED 2,400 TONS OF STONE

Big Blast In the Samp Quarry Near Beloit—Giant Powder Used.

By a single blast in the Samp quarry near Beloit 2,400 tons of stone were dislodged. A six-inch hole, nineteen feet deep was bored at a point twenty feet from the perpendicular edge of the rock, and into this hole 125 pounds of giant powder was poured after the hole was made dry. A fuse was run down the hole, and a lot of dry earth was "tamped" into it. When everything was ready for lighting the fuse, Mr. Samp directed everybody to a safe point, and told them to wait for six minutes after the explosion. Watches were "held on the fuse," and in six and a half minutes there was a mighty bulging and upheaval of stone, then a deep intonation which rocked the earth forty rods distant. When the cloud of smoke which enveloped that portion of the quarry had cleared away a ponderous mass of stone was seen to have been dislodged and broken. One piece weighing fully twenty tons, was thrown fifty feet into the quarry pit. The spectators cheered when the success of the blast was noted.

FOUNTAIN CAUSES A MUD HOLE

Highland Avenue People Complain that There Is Too Much Overflow.

Highland avenue people complain that the drinking fountain on that street is the cause of a pond of water forming that is a great nuisance. They say complaints relative thereto have not been heeded, and nothing has been done to abate the nuisance. "We have a regular frog pond up there" said J. W. Clarke, whose house faces the fountain, "and there seems to be no disposition to improve the situation."

An Excess of Compliment.

GOOD PRIZES HANG BEFORE CYCLERS

ROCK COUNTY FAIR PROGRAM
ATTRACTIVE.

Janesville, Evansville and Beloit Wheelmen Will Try Conclusions on the Track Next Week—Thursday Will Be Janesville Day and Stores Will Close.

The bicycle races at the Rock county fair will prove a great drawing card, for Rock county's best riders have entered and both Beloit and Evansville riders say that the Janesville boys will have to move a great deal faster than they did at the last meet, to capture any of the prizes. Chase, of Evansville, and VanWart, of Beloit, have their blood up. A good program has been arranged, the prizes being as good as any that have been hung up for local riders in this part of the state, and the following program will be carried out.

Quarter Mile Open, for championship of Rock county—Prizes, gold opera glasses; silk umbrella.

One Mile Open, for championship of Rock county—Prizes, gold medal; gold cuff buttons, Knox hat.

One Mile Handicap—Prizes, stop watch; gent's leather valise; sweater. Three Mile Handicap—Prizes, diamond stud; watch charm; Stetson hat.

For boys Under 15 Years; to be called at 11 a. m.; one mile handicap—Prizes—silver watch; sweater; pair shoes.

Entry Books Closed

Entries closed Monday of this week Races will be called at 1 p. m. with exception of No. 5 at 11 a. m. All open to any part of Rock county.

Thursday will be Janesville day at the fair, and an effort will be made to have stores close from 1 until 5. The Imperial band will furnish music that day.

Friday will be county day, although it is a safe bet that every day will be county day in great degree. But the Evansville Hussar band will play Friday, and there will be special features on the programme for the visitors.

Those intending to make entries should do so at once, and avoid the rush of the last few days. The secretary's office is with Mr. Carrington, next door to Stevens' drug store, where he is prepared to receive entries at any time during the day.

A Logical Question.

Aunt Jane—Charles, I am sorry to see that you keep such late hours. Your dear father never had any use for a latch key at your age.

Charles—What did he do—stay out all night?—Brooklyn Life.

Hopeless.

Hurrying Stranger (in Squeehawk)—Is there time to catch the train?
Langrid Native—Waal, stranger, ye've got time enough, I reckon, but I'm dead sure ye hain't got the speed.—Harper's Bazar.

She Had the Floor.

Cholly Chumpleigh—We have met before, I think, Miss Coldeal. 'Twas in a crowd.

Miss Coldeal—It was. A crowded car. I stood up.—N. Y. World.

A Great Success.

Sawdley—Snaggs says he is a failure as far as success is concerned.
Criffs—In other words, he's a success as far as failure is concerned.—Boston Courier.

New Illustrations of the Paris' Power.

Some interesting figures concerning the American liner Paris are given in a recent issue of the Bulletin de la Société des Ingénieurs Civils. To carry a steamship of her lines and tonnage, 15,500, across the ocean in less than six days, more than 20,000 horse power must be developed by the engines, and 1,800 tons of coal must be consumed in developing this power. The screws, making 88 revolutions a minute, revolve 760,320 times during the voyage, and travel in the process a distance equal to one-third the circumference of the globe. The horse power necessary to drive the vessel at this speed would, if it were possible to apply it to lifting without loss from friction, raise the weight of the Eiffel Tower nearly 1,000 feet in twenty-five minutes. There enters the boilers 30 litres of water every second, or enough in the course of the voyage to cover the Champs de Mars, more than 100 acres in area, nearly 1.2 inches deep. The circulating pumps of the steamship carry during the voyage enough water to cover the Champs de Mars nearly 4.9 inches deep.

The Youngest Tramp on the Road. Roy Jones, who ran away from his home in Monticello, Ill., over two years ago, is, perhaps, the youngest tramp on the road to-day. When he was registered at the county jail at Logansport, Ind., one night recently by a policeman who had picked him up on the street, he gave his age as 10 years and his destination as New York. He had just returned, he said, from a trip to San Francisco, and in the two years of his absence from home, had traveled all through the south and west. He started out with a burning desire to camp and herd cattle on the plains, and continued roving merely for the variety and excitement it afforded. Because of his extreme youth it was easier for him to beat his way than it would have been for an older person. He refused a pass home, and continued on his way east.

Hundred-Yard Record Out. Brocton, Mass., Sept. 3.—The world's professional and amateur record for the 100-yard dash was broken here yesterday in the national championship foot-race by Ed. Donovan, better known as "Piper" Donovan, of Natick, who made the distance in 9 3-5 seconds. The world's record was equaled twice in the trial heats. The former mark was 4-5 seconds, both professional and amateur.

VENO AGAIN,

Another Large Crowd Greet The Doctor on the Corn Exchange Square Last Night—Another Case of Rheumatism Taken—All Pain Disappears in Twenty Minutes.

Last Night Veno in a Forceful Manner Proved to the Large Crowd that He Could Cure Rheumatism. In the Case of

Mr. Timothy O'Rourke,

of North Bluff St., who had suffered with rheumatism in his left shoulder for months and was in pain continually. Unable to raise his arm, had been treated by two doctors but failed to find any relief. Veno's Electric Fluid was applied by an assistant and a gentleman present, and in a few minutes' time declared that he was free from the pain that had tormented him so long. To say the crowd was astonished is putting it mild, the work being done so quickly seemed almost beyond belief.

Mr. Nicholas Crotzenberg,

who was treated so successfully the night before was seen on the streets this morning and declared that he felt still better than he did Monday night. His case was a very complicated one as partial paralysis of his arms and limbs had set in from Rheumatism. It had affected his speech in a great measure, and even now his voice is stronger, and to say the least Mr. Crotzenberg feels wonderfully thankful for the wonderful improvement in his condition.

Veno will perform another cure at the Corn Exchange tonight. Veno is no one-idea man. His rheumatism fluid and medicine are not his sole stock. He has imported European specifics, which have been tested and proved effective in thousands of hard cases of nervousness, dyspepsia, paralysis, fits, epilepsy, catarrh, deafness, liver, kidney and blood disorders and all stomach troubles. When "regular" physicians give up cases Veno takes them with confidence. Consultation free at

NO FILIBUSTERING.

American sympathy with the cause of the Cuban insurgents has not abated. On the contrary, it is keener and more general now than at any previous time since the insurrection started. But the American people respect law and desire that the international obligations of their government shall be faithfully kept and therefore they will give no countenance to operations which contravene the laws and violate our obligations to a friendly nation. This people will continue to extend to the Cuban insurgents the moral support of its sympathy, regardless of what Spain may think of it, but the neutrality laws must be enforced and the demand for this is more urgent now than ever.

DEMOCRATIC HOPES

The democratic vote in Ohio this year will be greatly in excess of last year's figures.

The business improvement is responsible for part of this and the democratic swing over to the sound money side will account for the rest. For the first of these manifestations the democrats are not accountable and deserve no credit, but for the second they are responsible and they are entitled to all the praise and all the extra votes which it will bring them. Each fact will add tens of thousands to their polls this year but republicans were never as harmonious or united and the result will not be a matter of doubt.

BLOOMERS A SAUCED HERITAGE.

"Women have a constitutional and God-given right to ride a bicycle, and they are bound to have a comfortable and appropriate dress therefor." So declared the Arkansas judge who discharged the bloomer-clad prisoner arrested with a great flourish of trumpets for appearing in public in indecent apparel. This settles it. Any woman deprived of the privilege of riding a bicycle and riding in bloomers at that, may appeal to the guaranty of the constitution for a redress of her wrongs. It will henceforth be a serious thing for any man to interfere with the pursuit of this God-given cycling habit by every woman who is so inclined.

AN INFALLIBLE BAROMETER.

Every reader of The Gazette these days sees signs of an opening fall trade of unusual prosperity. Merchants are opening the campaign with confidence and earnestness, which show them to be parsing "hard times" and "panics" in the past tense. The advertising columns of The Gazette very ably corroborate the declaration of its news columns that wages are rising as a result of improved conditions, that business is not only reviving, but has revived, and that prosperity has come again for a stay of many years. The character as well as the extent of The Gazette's circulation make it an excellent barometer of the local mercantile situation.

BETTER TIMES.

The decrease in the treasury deficit is pleasing news for the country. In August it was only $3,700,000 as compared with $9,500,000 in July. The shrinkage is due to a growth in customs receipts, and as this is caused by the general improvement in business it is likely to continue. Internal revenue receipts are still disappointingly small, but the same thing which causes the growth in customs must soon have a little effect here also. The long expected disappearance of the deficits may be near at hand.

WERE CAUGHT IN CUPID'S MESHES

Charles Ward and Miss Dora E. Randall, both of this city, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony, at 11 a. m., today, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. F. Randall, 203 Glen street, Rev. A. Porter of the 1st M. E. church officiating. The service was pronounced in a room with drawn curtains, lighted to represent an evening scene, the effect being very pleasing.

After the ceremony the wedding party, consisting of relatives and a few near friends, partook of a bounteous dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ward took the 12:45 train on the Northwestern road, for a brief wedding trip in the northern part of the state, accompanied by the best wishes of their numerous friends. They expect to return the last of the week, and at once begin housekeeping in the Noyes house on Center street. Mr. Ward is a brakeman on the Northwestern road.

Krause-St. John.

A charming little wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. St. John, 159 Center avenue, at 10 o'clock this morning. The contracting parties were Miss Alma M. St. John, the daughter of the household, and M. D. Krause of Chicago, a popular conductor on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. The Rev. Mr. Claybaugh of Chicago, a friend and pastor of the groom, officiated. Only a few relatives were present. After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Krause left for a trip to St. Paul and other points in the northwest. They will make their home in Chicago.

Sayres-Babcock.

A wedding ceremony in which Janesville people were much interested, was performed at Clinton yesterday afternoon, when John F. Sayres, of St. Louis, and Miss Mary Hulda Babcock were united in matrimony's holy bonds. The bride is the daughter of ex-Sheriff and Mrs. George C. Babcock, and during her residence here she was a universal favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Sayres will reside in St. Louis, and left for that city last evening.

BEER SOLD AT A BELOIT PICNIC

People Stirred Up and Claim the Law Was Violated.

For the first time in many years, if ever, beer was sold at a picnic in Beloit, when the Germans of the city celebrated the battle of Sedan, and sold beer, which fact has greatly stirred up the temperance folks and even some of the saloonkeepers, who do not approve of beer picnics. Some claim that the law was violated, and there promises to be lively times over the affair. When a protest was made, the beer-seller moved his counter across the state line and did a bigger business than ever.

A NEW DYSPEPSIA CURE.

Over 6,000 People in State of Michigan Cured in 1894 by this New Preparation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new discovery for stomach troubles, is claimed to have cured over 6,000 people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894. These tablets have become so popular with physicians and people who have any form of indigestion that they have the endorsement of such physicians as Dr. Harlandson and Dr. Jennison as being the safest, most reliable remedy for sour stomach, chronic dyspepsia, gas, bloating, palpitation, headache, constipation, and in all cases where the appetite is poor or the food imperfectly digested.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any kind of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. They are not a secret patent medicine but composed of vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin, Golden Seal, ginger and the digestive acids. They are pleasant to take, can be carried in the pocket, and they cure because they digest the food promptly before it has time to ferment and poison the blood.

Druggists everywhere sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages, at 50 Cents. A book on Stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials sent free by addressing The Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

WATER WORKS SUIT IN THE STATE'S NAME

M. G. JEFFRIS GETS PERMISSION FROM MADISON.

Attorney General Mylrea Consents to Have the Case Brought On His Relation—Other Matters of Bower City News Put in Brief Shape For Busy Readers.

WATER WORKS SUIT—The effort to forfeit the franchise of the Janesville Water Company will soon be made. Yesterday M. G. Jeffris quietly slipped into Attorney General Mylrea's office in Madison and secured permission to bring a suit in the name of the state upon the relation of the attorney general to forfeit the franchise of the company. It is not known when the suit will be brought but the notices of the city's intention to sue have been filed on stockholders of the company.

Lincoln J. Carter, the successful young author and manager of "The Fast Mail," announces as his second bid for public approval, "The Tornado," and recognizing that much of his great success with his first play was due to the fact that he always kept faith with the public, he has adopted as a trade mark this motto, "To hold, as well as win success, keep all your play-bill promises."—Tornado at Myers' Grand Thursday, September 5.

DANCE—Invitations have been issued for a private dancing party at Crystal Springs tonight. They read, "You are invited. Bring your own grub. Be at Buck's dock Wednesday, September 4, at 5 o'clock. American Bank Note Engraving Company, printers."

BASE BALL—The West centers and Buckeye Centers crossed bat at Center and the game was won by the Buckeyes score 14 to 9. Battery for Buckeyes—William and Crow. West Center—TenEyck and Cator. Umpire Edward Tracy gave good satisfaction.

STILL THERE—A telephone message from Evansville this morning was to the effect that the town is still intact, although some people thought it would be torn into small bits when the victorious base ball nine and the "rooters" got home.

BASE BALL FAMILY—The Broughtons are a family of base ball players. "Oat" is an old time champion while his brother Frank not only plays first base himself but has taught his two boys Frank, Jr., and Roy to cover left field and third.

SURGERY—Dr. Mills, assisted by Dr. Gibson, performed a difficult surgical operation on L. Angell of the Second ward yesterday. Mr. Angell was suffering from an abscess and the doctors put a drainage tube a foot long in position.

GIRLS RODE—Four girls who succeeded in getting out of paying their fare on a street car, afterward bragged of beating the company. They were from the country, it is said, for city girls don't do such things.

MC CONNELL DRUNK—Will J. McConnell, the temperance advocate, who has often labored in towns around Janesville, goes to the Cleveland workhouse for drunkenness.

INSURED—John F. Gibbons had $300 insurance on the furniture in his residence which was destroyed by fire, while the building itself was protected by a $600 policy.

SAW THE GAME—Ex-Governor W. D. Hoard. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoard and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoard of Fort Atkinson saw the ball game from their carriage.

BUYS WRITERS—Superintendent D. D. Mayne has purchased several Smith Premier machines to be used in the type writing department of the high school.

WE CAN SHOE the girls and boys for school with good shoes very cheap now because we bought them cheap. You may have the benefit. Lloyd & Son.

COMING ATTRACTIONS—Lincoln J. Carter's "Tornado" will be seen at the Grand tomorrow evening and Charles Gardner, September 12.

FAST RIDE—City Clerk A. E. Badger rode his bicycle from Rockford to Janesville, thirty-three miles, in three hours yesterday.

TAKE A REST—Will McGinley and John Schieker, the two best pitchers in the Dubuque nine, are home for a few days' rest.

FIRM QUIT—Hall & Rose the grocery-men have dissolved partnership and Mr. Rose will continue the business alone.

MORRISSEY IS A FINE PLAYER

The Rockford Papers Complimented The Janesville Man Highly.

The Dubuque ball team with which John Schieker, Will McGinley, Fred Dixon, Thomas Morrissey and George Wilbur are now playing has joined the Western Association. The team played at Rockford yesterday and the Register-Gazette has this to say: "There was quite a good deal of interest manifested in the new players, and at the close of the game the consensus of opinion was that there were one or two men on the Dubuque team who were fast enough to trot to the front in the present company. The greatest player on the visiting team is Morrissey, the first baseman, who is a giant in stature and who played the bag according to tradition. He stops everything that comes within a radius of twenty feet and cuts off many a wild throw by his play. At the bat he has been the terror of the Eastern Iowa league, and he will have a good average in the association, as he is evidently one of the natural hitters who fear nobody's pitching. The whole outfield played a good game, but it is evidently with the bat that the visitors are weak. Such speedy pitching was a stumbling block to them. Schieker and Dixon, one of the batteries formerly appeared in this city on a Janesville team, which met defeat at the hand of the old Athletics."

MRS. SHAFER'S APPEAL PERFECTED

Papers Have Been Filed With Municipal Court Clerk Williams.

Mrs. Ellen Shafer, the proprietress of the "Traveler's Rest" an inn or tavern vacated at Orfordville will not pay the $50 fine imposed upon her for selling liquor without another legal battle. She announced her intention of appealing the case soon after the verdict against her was rendered and kept good her promise today, by filing the necessary papers with Municipal Court Clerk Williams.

Frank Nelson, the Evansville man who was convicted of the same offence will also appeal to the municipal court but in default of bail he was committed to jail pending the trial.

THE RAINS DID UNTOLD GOOD.

All Crops, W. H. Tripp Says, Now Looking Fine.

W. H. Tripp, the well known town of Rock farmer was in town today and said that the recent rains had done untold good in his neighborhood. The bleaching pastures are once more green and luxuriant while corn and tobacco have a new lease of life.

RECTOR THREW OUT A GANG OF TOUGHS

REV. W. H. WOTTON FACES FIVE ROWDIES.

Drunken Ruffians Tried to Take Possession of the Steamer But Were Kept Off the Pier By the Athletic Rector —He Says "It Was Really Nothing."

Rev. W. H. Wotton threw five drunken rowdies off the Crystal Springs pier last evening and averted panic.

His muscle did more than the shots from Captain Buchholz' pistol—it averted a gang armed with brass knuckles, and saved Trinity church picnic from being broken up.

Had he been a man of flabby biceps and puny extensors there would have been a boat-load of fainting women and terrified children and serious consequences would have followed.

The trouble happened about 7 o'clock. Trinity Sunday school had been up the river all day and at 7 o'clock the boat was to take the children and teachers home. As the Columbia was made fast to the pier their praises of Mr. Wotton's coolness and courage today.

"There is no doubt that he prevented very serious trouble," said a teacher. "The men were very drunk and Captain Buchholz could do nothing with them. Very few of the women and children would have gone on the boat had they climbed on board, and some of the women were so frantic with fear that I think they would have jumped overboard. The way Mr. Wotton struck out at them made us all want to cheer."

A thing that many Janesville people do not know and that the rowdies certainly overlooked, is that Mr. Wotton is an athlete of no small prowess. He rowed in the famous St. George crew, while at school in England and has always been devoted to out door sports, believing that every boy is the better for knowing how to take care of himself.

Said He Merely Pushed Them.

The plucky rector was very loth to speak of last night's trouble when seen by a Gazette representative today.

"There was really nothing," he said at first. When told that the facts in the case had been made public, he said:

"The men were heard talking about going down on the boat, and so I told them they couldn't. They tried to pass me on the gangway of the pier, and I pushed them back. The first one I pushed grabbed me and pulled me with him, so all the others got their hand on me, but it was no trouble at all to shake them off, for they were so drunk. They tried to trip me but were too drunk, and finally I was able to send them all back in a huddle. I was very sorry the thing happened, for as long as those men remained there I didn't dare to let the young people have their moonlight excursion to the park, and we had to declare it off. It was a great disappointment. Am I hurt? Oh, dear no! I received no hard usage nor did anybody else."

B. RYAN PUNCHED A POLICEMAN

Beloit's Own Bolivar Beats Officer Brant and Is Jailed.

"Bolivar" Ryan of Beloit, he of the hard name and still harder disposition, is occupying his old quarters at the county jail. The last time Bolivar was here, they charged him with stealing seventy-five cents' worth of honey. It wasn't his sweet tooth that got him in trouble this time, however, it was his leathery fist. He applied it to the face of Night Officer Charles Brant. Brant had not been "licked" so thoroughly in years, but he gets his inning now, for Ryan having been to the penitentiary once, is likely to go again.

Everybody get on board as fast as possible," said Mr. Wotton quietly and emphatically.

The crying children and frightened women piled on the boat. The larger boys, who had been back in the woods moving the picnic supplies, came running down and were posted along the shore side of the steamer to keep the toughs from jumping aboard at the last minute, as they loudly vowed they would do.

Mr. Wotton stood on the pier and faced them until the boat was moving. Then he turned, made a leap for the rail, caught one of the many hands that were extended, and swung himself on board.

Captain Buchholz had a revolver ready as a precaution, and fired two shots as a warning, but the warning was without effect. In order to bring the picnicers back he had to leave Mrs. Buchholz at the park alone. He told her to lock everything up and if the men attempted to do any damage to shoot. After the boat left, however, there was no trouble. Two of the men stole a row boat and came to town, the others walked off into the woods and disappeared. They had been lying around the woods since the labor day picnic, it is said, and tried to go down on the five o'clock boat yesterday but were persuaded to behave. Officer Houghton was on the grounds a short time during the afternoon but at that time they were quiet and inoffensive. Early the afternoon it is said they had a fight and brass knuckles were used freely, one of the fighters being badly cut.

Very few of the women and children would have gone on the boat had they climbed on board, and some of the women were so frantic with fear that I think they would have jumped overboard. The way Mr. Wotton struck out at them made us all want to cheer."

A thing that many Janesville people do not know and that the rowdies certainly overlooked, is that Mr. Wotton is an athlete of no small prowess. He rowed in the famous St. George crew, while at school in England and has always been devoted to out door sports, believing that every boy is the better for knowing how to take care of himself.

Said He Merely Pushed Them.

The plucky rector was very loth to speak of last night's trouble when seen by a Gazette representative today.

"There was really nothing," he said at first. When told that the facts in the case had been made public, he said:

"The men were heard talking about going down on the boat, and so I told them they couldn't. They tried to pass me on the gangway of the pier, and I pushed them back. The first one I pushed grabbed me and pulled me with him, so all the others got their hand on me, but it was no trouble at all to shake them off, for they were so drunk. They tried to trip me but were too drunk, and finally I was able to send them all back in a huddle. I was very sorry the thing happened, for as long as those men remained there I didn't dare to let the young people have their moonlight excursion to the park, and we had to declare it off. It was a great disappointment. Am I hurt? Oh, dear no! I received no hard usage nor did anybody else."

B. RYAN PUNCHED A POLICEMAN

Beloit's Own Bolivar Beats Officer Brant and Is Jailed.

"Bolivar" Ryan of Beloit, he of the hard name and still harder disposition, is occupying his old quarters at the county jail. The last time Bolivar was here, they charged him with stealing seventy-five cents' worth of honey. It wasn't his sweet tooth that got him in trouble this time, however, it was his leathery fist. He applied it to the face of Night Officer Charles Brant. Brant had not been "licked" so thoroughly in years, but he gets his inning now, for Ryan having been to the penitentiary once, is likely to go again.

That Northern Dairy.

Have you ever tried the famous Northern Dairy butter. Its nice flavor, and costs you right now, at the present time, only 19 cents a pound by the jar or 20 cents by the pound. Its cheaper and better than other. We received 300 pounds yesterday and its going fast. Nolan Bros., Telephone 172.

Fresh Melons.

We get them three times a week nowadays, and today that the flavor of those muskmelons is good, one needs to try them but once. The season is short on melons; better improve the opportunity while they last. Dann Bros.

Have you tried those elegant melons at Hayner & Grubbs. They are fine.

Everybody get on board as fast as possible," said Mr. Wotton quietly and emphatically.

The crying children and frightened women piled on the boat. The larger boys, who had been back in the woods moving the picnic supplies, came running down and were posted along the shore side of the steamer to keep the toughs from jumping aboard at the last minute, as they loudly vowed they would do.

Mr. Wotton stood on the pier and faced them until the boat was moving. Then he turned, made a leap for the rail, caught one of the many hands that were extended, and swung himself on board.

Captain Buchholz had a revolver ready as a precaution, and fired two shots as a warning, but the warning was without effect. In order to bring the picnicers back he had to leave Mrs. Buchholz at the park alone. He told her to lock everything up and if the men

SUNDAY'S SERMON
BY DR. TALMAGE
"THE CHIEFTAIN" SUBJECT OF DISCOURSE.

The Golden Text: "The Chiefest Among
Ten Thousand"—Canticles, Chapter V, Verse 10—Jesus Christ Is Chief of Heaven.

THE MOST CONspicuous character
of history steps out
upon the platform.
The finger which,
diamonded with
light, pointed down
to him from the Bethlehem sky, was only a ratification
of the finger of
prophecy, the finger of genealogy, the finger of chronology, the finger of events—all five fingers pointing in one direction. Christ is the overtopping figure of all time.
He is the "vox humana" in all music,
the gracefulest line in all sculpture,
the most exquisite mingling of lights and shades in all painting, the acme of all
climaxes, the dome of all cathedral
grandeur, and the peroration of all language.

The Greek alphabet is made up of twenty-four letters, and when Christ
compared himself to the first letter and the last letter, the Alpha and the Omega, he appropriated to himself all the splendors that you can spell out either with those two letters or all the letters between them: "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

What does that Scripture mean which says of Christ, "He that cometh from above is above all?" It means after you have piled up all Alpine and Himalayan altitudes, the glory of Christ
would have to spread its wings and descend a thousand leagues to touch
those summits. Pellion, a high mountain of Thessaly; Ossa, a high mountain, and Olympus, a high mountain;
but mythology tells us when the giants
warred against the gods they piled up these three mountains, and from the top of them proposed to scale the heavens; but the height was not great enough, and there was a complete failure. And after all the giants—Isaiah and Paul, prophetic and apostolic giants; Raphael and Michael Angelo,
artistic giants; cherubim and seraphim
and archangel, celestial giants—have failed to climb to the top of Christ's glory they might all unite in the words
of Paul, and cry out, "Above all! Above all!" But Solomon in his text prefers to call Christ "The Chieftain," and so today I hail him.

First, Christ must be chief in our preaching. There are so many books on homiletics scattered through the country that all laymen, as well as all clergymen, have made up their minds
what sermons ought to be. That sermon is the most effectual which most pointedly puts forth Christ as the pardon of all sin and the correction of all evil—individual, social, political, national. There is no reason why we should ring the endless changes on a few phrases. There are those who think that if an exhortation or a discourse
have frequent mention of justification,
sanctification, covenant of works and covenant of grace, therefore it must be profoundly evangelical, while they are suspicious of a discourse which presents the same truth, but under different phraseology. Now, I say there is nothing in all the opulent realm of Anglo-Saxonism, of all the word treasures that we inherited from the Latin and the Greek and the Indo-European,
but we have a right to marshal it in religious discussion. Christ sets the example. His illustrations were from the grass, the flowers, the barn-yard
fowl, the crystals of salt, as well as
from the seas and the stars; and we do not propose in our Sunday-school teaching and in our pulpit address to be put on the limits.

I know that there is a great deal said
in our day against words, as though they were nothing. They may be misused, but they have an imperial power.
They are the bridge between soul and soul, between Almighty God and the human race. What did God write upon the tables of stone? Words. What did Christ utter on Mount Olivet?
Words. Out of what did Christ strike
the spark for the illumination of the universe? Out of words. "Let there be light," and light was. Of course, thought is the cargo, and words are only the ship; but how fast would your cargo get on without the ship? What you need, my friends, in all your work
in the Sabbath-school class, in your reformatory institutions, and what we all need, is to enlarge our vocabulary
when we come to speak about God and Christ and heaven. We ride a few old words to death, when there is such inimitable source. Shakespeare employed 15,000 different words for dramatic purposes, Milton employed 8,000
different words for poetic purposes.
Rufus Choate employed over 11,000 different words for legal purposes, but the most of us have less than 1,000 words that we can manage, and that makes us so stupid.

When we come to set forth the love
of Christ we are going to take the tenderest phraseology wherever we find it,
and if it has never been used in that direction before all the more shall we use it. When we come to speak of the glory of Christ the Conqueror, we are going to draw our smiles from triumphal arch and oratorio and everything
grand and stupendous. The French navy have eighteen flags by which they give signal, but those eighteen flags
they can put into sixty-six different combinations. And I have to tell you that these standards of the cross may be lifted into combinations infinite and varieties everlasting. And let me say to these young men who come from the

theological seminaries into our services, and are, after awhile, going to preach Jesus Christ: You will have the largest liberty and unlimited resource.
You only have to present Christ in your own way.

Brighter than the light, fresher than
the fountains, deeper than the seas,
are all these gospel themes. Song has no melody, flowers no sweetness, sunset
sky no color, compared with these glorious themes. These harvests of grace
spring up quicker than we can sickle
them. Kindling pulpits with their fire and producing revolutions with their power, lighting up dying beds with their glory, they are the sweetest thought for the poet, and they are the most thrilling illustration for the orator, and they offer the most intense scene for the artist, and they are to the ambassador of the sky all enthusiasm; complete pardon for direst guilt;
sweetest comfort for ghastliest agony;
brightest hope for grimmest death;
grandest resurrection for darkest sepulchre. Oh, what a gospel to preach!
Christ the Chief! His birth, his suffering, His miracles, His sweat, His tears,
His blood, His atonement, His intercession—what glorious themes! Do we exercise faith? Christ is its object. Do we have love? It fastens on Jesus.
Have we a fondness for the church?
It is because Christ died for it. Have we a hope of heaven? It is because Jesus went there, the herald and the forerunner. The royal robe of Demetrius was so costly, so beautiful, that after he had put it off no one ever dared
to put it on. But this robe of Christ, richer than that, the poorest and the weakest and the worst may wear.
"Where sin abounded, grace may much more abound."

"Oh, my sins, my sins!" said Martin
Luther to Staupitz, "my sins, my sins!"
The fact is that the brawny German student had found a Latin bible that made him quake, and nothing else ever did make him quake; and when he found how, through Christ, he was pardoned and saved he wrote to a friend,
saying: "Come over and join us great
and awful sinners, saved by the grace of God. You seem to be only a slender sinner, and you don't much extol the mercy of God; but we that have been such very awful sinners praise His grace the more now that we have been redeemed." Can it be that you are so desperately egotistical that you feel yourself in first-rate spiritual trim, and that from the root of the hair to the tip of the toe you are scar-less and immaculate? What you need is a looking-glass, and here it is in the Bible. Poor and wretched and miserable and blind and naked from the crown of the head to the sole of the foot, full of wounds and putrifying sores. No health in us. And then take the fact that Christ gathered up
all the notes against us and paid them,
and then offered us the receipt! And how much we need him in our sorrows! We are independent of circumstances if we have His grace. Why,
He made Paul sing in the dungeon,
and under that grace St. John from desolate Patmos heard the blast of the apocalyptic trumpets. After all other candles have been snuffed out, this is the light that gets brighter and brighter unto the perfect day; and after, under the hard hoofs of calamity, all the pools of worldly enjoyment have been trampled into deep mire, at the foot of the eternal rock, the Christian, from the cups of granite, lily-rimmed, puts out the thirst of his soul.

Again I remark that Christ is chief in dying alleviations. I have not any sympathy with the morbidity abroad
about our demise. The Emperor of Constantinople arranged that on the day of his coronation the stone mason
should come and consult him about the tombstone that after awhile he would need. And there are men who are non-omaniacal on the subject of departure
from this life, by death, and the more
they think of it the less they are prepared to go. This is an unmanliness
not worthy of you, not worthy of me.

Saladin, the greatest conqueror of his day, while dying, ordered that the tunic he had on him be carried after his death on his spear at the head of his army, and then the soldier, ever and anon, should stop and say: "Behold all that is left of Saladin, the emperor and conqueror! Of all the states
he conquered, of all the wealth he accumulated, nothing did he retain but this shroud." I have no sympathy with such behavior, or such absurd demonstration, or with much that we hear uttered in regard to departure from this life to the next. There is a common-sensical idea on this subject that you need to consider—there are only two styles of departure. A thousand feet underground, by light of torch, tolling in a miner's shaft, a ledge of
rock may fall upon us, and we may die
a miner's death. Far out at sea, failing from the slippery ratlines and broken on the billiards, we may die a sailor's death. On mission of mercy in hospital, amid broken bones and reeking leprosy and raging fevers, we may die a philanthropist's death. On the field of battle, serving God and our country, slugs through the heart, the gun carriage may roll over us, and we may die a patriot's death. But, after all, there are only two styles of departure—the death of the righteous and the death of the wicked—and we all want to die the former.

God grant that when that hour comes you may be at home. You want the hand of your kindred in your hand.
You want your children to surround
you. You want the light on your pillow from eyes that have long reflected your love. You want your room still.
You do not want any curious stranger's
standing around watching you. You want your kindred from afar to hear your last prayer. I think that is the wish of all of us. But is that all? Can earthly friends hold us up when the billows of death come up to the girdle?
Can human voice charm open heaven's gate? Can human hand pilot us through the narrow of death into heaven's harbor? Can any earthly friendship shield us from the arrows

of death, and in the hour when Satan
shall practice upon us his infernal archery? No, no, no, no! Alas! poor soul,
if that is all. Better die in the wilderness, far from tree shadow and from fountain, alone, vultures circling
through the air waiting for our body,
unknown to men, and to have no burial, if only Christ could say through the solitudes, "I will never leave thee, I will never forsake thee." From that pillow of stone a ladder would soar
heavenward, angels coming and going;
and across the solitude and the barrenness would come the sweet notes of heavenly minstrelsy.

Gordon Hall, far from home, dying
in door of a heathen temple, said: "Glory to thee, O God!" What did dying Wilberforce say to his wife? "Come and sit beside me, and let us talk of heaven. I never knew what happiness was until I found Christ." What did dying Hannah More say? "To go to heaven, think what that is! To go to Christ, who died that I might live!
Oh, the love of Christ, the love of Christ!" What did Toplady, the great hymn-maker, say in his last hour?
"Who can measure the depths of the third heaven? Oh, the sunshine that fills my soul! I shall soon be gone,
but surely no one can live in this world
after such glories as God has manifested to my soul."

What did the dying Janeway say? "I can as easily die as close my eyes or turn my head in sleep. Before a few hours have passed I shall stand on Mount Zion with the one hundred and forty and four thousand, and with the just men made perfect, and we shall ascribe riches, and honor, and glory,
and majesty, and dominion unto God
and the Lamb." Dr. Taylor, condemned to burn at the stake, on his way thither broke away from his guardsmen, and went bounding, and leaping, and jumping toward the fire, glad to go to Jesus
and to die for him. Sir Charles Hare,
in his last moments had such rapturous vision that he cried: "Upward, upward, upward!" And so great was the peace of one of Christ's disciples that he put his finger upon the pulse in his wrist and counted and observed it; and so great was his placidity that after awhile he said: "Stopped!" and his life had ended here to begin in heaven.
But grander than that was the testimony of the worn-out first missionary when, in the Mamertine dungeon, he cried: "I am now ready to be offered,
and the time of my departure is at hand; I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept
the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me in that day, and not to me only, but
to all them that love his appearing!"
Do you not see that Christ is chief in dying alleviations?

So, also, Christ is chief in heaven.
The Bible distinctly says that Christ
is the chief theme of the celestial ascription, all the thrones facing His throne, all the palms waved before His face, all the crowns down at His feet.
Cherubim to cherubim, seraphim to seraphim, redeemed spirit to redeemed
spirit, shall recite the Savior's earthly sacrifice.

Stand on some high hill of heaven,
and in all the radiant sweep the most glorious object will be Jesus. Myriads gazing on the scars of His suffering, in silence first, afterward breaking forth into acclamation. The martyrs, all the purer for the flames through which they passed, will say, "This is the Jesus for whom we died." The apostles,
all the happier for the shipwreck and
the scourging through which they went, will say, "This is the Jesus whom we preached at Corinth, and at Cappa-docia, and at Antioch, and at Jerusalem." Little children clad in white will say, "This is the Jesus who took us in His arms and blessed us, and, when the storms of the world were too cold
and loud, brought us into this beautiful place." The multitude of the bereft will say, "This is the Jesus who comforted us when our heart broke." Many who wandered clear off from God and plunged into vagabondism, but were saved by grace, will say, "This is the Jesus who pardoned us. We were lost on the mountains, and He brought us home. We were guilty, and He made us white as snow." Mercy boundless, grace unparalleled. And then, after each one has recited his peculiar deliverances and peculiar mercies, recited them as by solo, all the voices
will come together in a great chorus,
which will make the arches echo and
re-echo with the eternal reverberation
of triumph.

Edward I. was so anxious to go to the Holy Land that when he was about to expire he bequeathed $160,000 to have his heart, after his decease, taken to the Holy Land, in Asia Minor, and his request was complied with. But there are hundreds to-day whose hearts are already in the Holy Land of heaven.
Where your treasures are, there are your hearts also. Quaint John Bunyan caught a glimpse of that place, and in his quaint way said: "And I heard in my dream, and lo! the bells of the city
rang again for joy; and as they opened the gates to let in the men I looked in after them, and lo! the city shone like
the sun, and there were streets of gold,
and the men walked on them, harps
in their hands, to ring praises withal;
and after that they shut up the gates,
which when I had seen I wished myself among them."

She Was a Peach.

They sat in the hammock—he and she—swinging the happy hours away in a happy manner peculiar to lovers. Finally he whispered in her shell-like ear:

"You are like a peach," he sighed wistfully.

The maiden hung her head demurely for a few minutes, while a warm blush spread over her fair blonde face.

"I—rather be a pair," she answered, tremulously.

A long silence ensued, then like a beautiful dream the situation unfolded itself to the young man, and the cards are now out.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

The Amende Honorable.

Indignant Citizen—See here, sir! You reported in your paper that I was going around with a black eye. It's abominably false, sir. I am suffering from granularis, and have to wear a patch to keep the light out.

Editor—I don't like to make corrections, my friend, but I'll fix it all right in the paper to-morrow. I'll announce that your antagonist is in bed with two black eyes.—N. Y. Weekly.

Created Free But Not Equal.

Mrs. Dorcas—Our league of emancipated women is going to have a lecture on the social equality of the sex. You must be sure to come.

Mrs. Cobwiger—Certainly, my dear. I shall bring Miss Manners with me, as she believes in social equality.

Mrs. Dorcas—Not for the world. You know she isn't in our set.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Conscientious Man.

"You say the trout weighed ten pounds?"

"Yes, sir; it was the biggest trout I ever saw."

"And it got away from you?"

"Yes."

"Will you make an oath to that?"

"I'll take no more oaths; I swore enough about it when he got away."—Tammany Times.

The Authority of Precedence.

Conductor (dubiously)—That seems a pretty big lad to travel on a half-fare ticket?

Mrs. Smithkins (tartly)—Well, I've been taking him out on this road for half-fare every summer for the last six years and I ain't going to pay full fare at this late day.—N. Y. World.

A Choice.

"I have finished your portrait, Mrs. De Fash," said the artist. "All but the coloring of the face."

"And why do you not finish that?"

"I wanted to hear from you as to whether you preferred me to have you look healthy or merely interesting."—Harper's Bazar.

Bad Luck.

Mrs. Gadders—Your daughter was miraculously rescued from drowning yesterday.

Mrs. Matchmaker—Yes; Dolly has awful luck.

Mrs. Gadders—Awful luck?

Mrs. Matchmaker—Why, the man who rescued her is married!—Puck.

Less Than Half Rates to Louisville, Ky.

On account of the National Encampment, G. A. R., the Northwestern line will on September 8, 9 and 10 sell excursion tickets to Louisville, Kentucky and return at less than one fare for the round trip. Tickets limited to return leaving Chicago not later than October 6, 1895. For tickets and full information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

Stomach and bowel complaints are best relieved by the timely use of DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. Insist on having this preparation. Don't take any other. C. D. Stevens.

Half Rate to Milwaukee.

On account of the Milwaukee Industrial Exposition and Wisconsin State Fair, the Northwestern line will, on September 16 to 21, inclusive, sell excursion tickets to Milwaukee and return at one fare for the round trip, tickets good for return passage until September 23, 1895. For tickets and full information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

Rockford, Ill., Fair Excursion.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway will sell excursion tickets to Rockford, Ill., and return, at a fare and a third from August 31 to September 6 good for return until and including September 7, on account of the fair and races.

THERE is but one way in the world to be sure of having the best paint, and that is to use only a well-established brand of strictly pure white lead, pure linseed oil, and pure colors.

The following brands are standard, "Old Dutch" process, and are always absolutely

Strictly Pure

White Lead

"Southern," "Red Seal," "Collier," "Shipman."

* If you want colored paint, tint any of the above strictly pure leads with National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of Strictly Pure White Lead the desired shade; they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the handiest form to tint Strictly Pure White Lead.
